Ruth-Maria Thomsen strengthens Luther Team

As of 1 October 2019, Ruth-Maria Thomsen will join Luther Real Estate Team as a partner at the Frankfurt office.

Ruth-Maria Thomsen specialises in providing comprehensive advice to domestic and foreign clients on both the buyer and seller sides of Real Estate transactions. In addition to a large number of asset and share deals, she has advised on large portfolio transactions and also advises on commercial tenancy law. Due to her many years of experience in corporate / M&A, she has particular expertise at the interface of real estate law with corporate law and the financing of transactions. In particular, she has experience in structuring and advising on complex share forward deals.

Ruth-Maria Thomsen began her legal career at Beiten Burkhardt in 2006. In 2010 she continued her practice in the Frankfurt office of SZA Schilling, Zutt & Anschutz, where she worked in the areas of Real Estate Law and Corporate / M&A until her move to Luther Lawfirm.

"We are very pleased that we have been able to acquire Ruth-Maria Thomsen, a proven expert in real estate law," says Elisabeth Lepique, Co-Managing Partner at Luther. "She will strengthen the existing team around Achim Meier and expand and expand our Real Estate Law Advisory Services in Frankfurt."
