

Young Careers – The role of International Desks at Law Firms
&
Cuba: Quo Vadis?

7th June 2018,
16:00 – 18:00

Bucerius Law School Room 0.01 EG
Jungiusstraße 6, 20355 Hamburg

The LAV-Juniors invite you to have a closer look at the role of international desks of law firms and young international careers in this professional area. The focus will be on Latin America as an interesting and traditional economic partner and investment region for German companies. In this context we will have a closer look at Cuba, a country that has undergone an interesting political and economic transformation in recent years and we will discuss the outlook for the country.

Participation at this event is free of charge, but please register via email at m.neumann@lateinamerikaverrein.de until the 4th of June 2018.

The lecture and discussion on Cuba will be held in German. The rest of the event will be in English.
